Extensions of time may be obtained under 37 CFR 1.136(a). The date on which the petition under 37 CFR 1.136(a) and the appropriate extension fee have been filed is the date for purposes of determining the period of extension and the corresponding amount of the fee. The appropriate extension fee under 37 CFR 1.17(a) is calculated from: (1) the expiration date of the shortened statutory period for reply originally set in the final Office action; or (2) as set forth in (b) above, if checked. Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of the final rejection, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Since a Notice of Appeal has been filed, any reply must be filed within the time period set forth in 37 CFR 41.37(a).

Continuation of 3. NOTE: Recitation of encapsulation in independent Claims 1 and 24 - a structural feature and step not previously claimed in any independent or dependent claims - is a new feature which requires consideration under 35 USC 101-103, 112..

Continuation of 11. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: Applicants arguments with respect to the prior art are noted, but not necessarily persuasive. Specifically, it is not understood whether Applicants contemplated "gum arabic" to be an "alginate" or not. The specification would appear to list "gum arabic" as an alginate. See (S. 4: 13-14) ("such as alginates, for example, alginic acid, propylene glycol alginate, gum arabic, xanthan gum . . ."). As such, the claims would appear to read on the Bandyopadhyaya reference.
